1. HONG KONG HERITAGE DISCOVERY CENTRE

HISTORICAL BUILDING

Looking Back - Once the Whitfield Barracks, the buildings reopened in 2005 after a massive restoration and are now used for heritage education. Pottery, glassware, ceramics and other artifacts are displayed in the permanent exhibition gallery on the first floor, while the second floor is a thematic gallery for temporary exhibitions.

- 📍 Kowloon Park, Haiphong Road, Tsim Sha Tsui
- 🕒 MON to WED 10:00am – 06:00pm
Weekends & Public Holidays 10:00am – 07:00pm
Christmas & Chinese New Year 10:00am – 05:00pm
- ☎ (852) 2208 4400
- 💰 Free Entrance

3. KNUTSFORD TERRACE

NIGHT LIFE IN KOWLOON

Raising the Bar - Home to vibrant pubs, bars and restaurants, Knutsford Terrace is the entertainment hub of Kowloon. Located just a stone's throw away from the main artery of shopping along Nathan Road, this buzzy nightlife destination is perfect for casual dining and drinks.

- 📍 Knutsford Terrace, Tsim Sha Tsui
- ★ Recommended Bars: Assembly, All Night Long
- 💰 HK$150 – HK$400 (US$19 – US$51)

5. SUN KEE CHEESE NOODLE

HONG KONG-STYLE DINER

Easy Being Cheesy - Famous among locals for its instant noodles topped with a generous serving of cheese sauce, this eatery is also a firm celebrity favourite, as evidenced by the pictures plastering its windows.

- 📍 13-14 Champagne Court, Kimberley Rd, Tsim Sha Tsui
- 🕒 12:00noon – 00:30midnight
- ☎ (852) 2722 4555
- ★ Must-try: Instant Noodles with Pork Collar in Cheesy Sauce (豬頸肉芝士撈面)
- 💰 Below HK$50 (US$6)

2. ST ANDREW'S CHURCH

HISTORICAL BUILDING

Going to the Chapel - The architectural style of this church is a rare-find in Hong Kong - cruciform in shape with touches of Victorian-gothic elegance. The original stained glass presented by Sir Paul Chater in the east window has been well preserved since the day the church first opened.

- 📍 138 Nathan Road, Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon
- 🕒 07:30am – 10:30pm Daily
- ☎ (852) 2367 1478
- 💰 Free Entrance

4. KIMBERLEY ROAD

"KOREAN TOWN"

Kimchi Wow - Often referred to as a mini "Korea Town", a tightly knit community of Koreans has lived on Kimberley Road since the 1960s and transformed the area into a foodie haven filled with delicious authentic Korean restaurants.

- 📍 Kimberley Road, Tsim Sha Tsui
- ★ Recommended Restaurants: Lee Family Chicken hof & soju, Red Chicken
- 💰 HK$100 – HK$200 (US$13 – US$26)

6. MUI KEE COOKFOOD STALL

HONG KONG-STYLE DINER

Street Eats - The essence of "Dai Pai Dong" or street food stalls in Hong Kong lies in the delicious Cantonese style dishes served in a lively environment filled with clatter of plates, sizzling aromas and the buzzing laughter and conversations of the crowds. Mui Kee is no exception, and the perfect spot to try out this only-in-Hong-Kong dining experience.

- 📍 5/F, Carnarvon Plaza, 20 Carnarvon Road, Tsim Sha Tsui
- 🕒 11:00am – 03:00pm, 05:30pm – 00:00midnight

★ Must-try: Chinese Twisted Cruller Stuffed with Cuttlefish (鬼馬油炸鬼), Fried Spareribs with Preserved Bean Curd (南乳香酥骨)

- 💰 HK$50 – HK$100 (US$6 – US$13)

7. MAMMY PANCAKE

LOCAL STREET FOOD

Waffle On - Like macarons to Parisians and shortbreads to Brits, Bubble Waffles (Eggettes) are a staple snack for locals in Hong Kong. Crispy on the outside and chewy on the inside, the waffle batter consists of eggs, sugar, flour and evaporated milk, pressed to perfection in a classic waffle maker - so simple, yet so delicious.

- 📍 6/F, Carnarvon Mansion, 8-12 Carnarvon Road, Tsim Sha Tsui
- 🕒 11:00am – 11:00pm
- 💰 HK$30 – HK$50 (US$4 – US$6)

8. HONG KONG MUSEUM OF HISTORY

MUSEUM

Back in Time - This museum takes visitors through Hong Kong's past to the territory's return to China in 1997 and the formation of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. Highlights include a beautiful recreation of a century-old Hong Kong street and stunning photo exhibits illustrating the transformation of the city.

- 📍 100 Chatham Road South, Tsim Sha Tsui
- 🕒 MON to WED 10:00am – 06:00pm
